

St. John the Baptist Catholic School
Program Evaluation

Eighth Grade Program Guide

Mission: To deliver instruction and curriculum using the St. John's Standards in Technology.

Component	Design (Instructional delivery)	Evidence
Philosophy: We promote the enjoyment of computer use. We will introduce additional skills necessary to use a computer for education	Skill concepts are introduced and are continually reviewed and practiced.	Eighth Grade students will have a long range Syllabus that breaks the learning themes into units. Weekly lesson plans will reflect the units as they are introduced.
Standard: 1 – Students type @ 30 WPM and 90% accuracy	Using computer assisted practice, students will work on keyboarding.	Students will complete keyboarding tests with cover installed.
Standard: 2 – Students use the Internet for classroom projects	Using direct instruction and classroom practice, students will conduct research on the Internet	Students will demonstrate knowledge completing integrated classroom projects.
Standard: 3 – Students can use MS Word for all types of classroom writing projects	Using direct instruction and classroom practice, students will complete writing assignments in MS Word	Students will demonstrate knowledge completing classroom projects.
Standard: 4 – Students can make complex MS Power Point presentations	Using direct instruction and classroom practice, students will be required to create complex multimedia MS Power Point presentations	Students will demonstrate skills as computer users by completing integrated classroom projects.
Standard: 5 – Students can chart and graph science projects in MS Excel	Using direct instruction and classroom practice, students will use MS Excel to complete science projects	Students will demonstrate knowledge by completing integrated classroom projects.
Standard: 6 – Students understands the basics of computer programming	Using direct instruction and classroom practice, students will program a computer	Students will demonstrate knowledge by completing classroom projects.

St. John the Baptist Catholic School
Program Evaluation

Standard: 7 – Students can make simple Web sites	Using direct instruction and classroom practice, students will be introduced to Web site design	Students will demonstrate knowledge by completing classroom projects.
---	---	---